Core Values

Spring 2 2024

Nurture....

---

- You are so thoughtful and helpful around the classroom! You always look for ways to help me and others. Thank you!

Respect....

---

- For organizing all the things that happen at after school Church. She is the best helper in the world.

Achieve....

- You are working hard in all lessons and clearly want to do well! Your hard work is paying off as you are doing so well.

Well done!

- In all lessons he is always answering questions.

Inclusive....

- She has been really helpful in French classes at lunchtime. She's supported younger children within the lessons and looked after them when they've been sad, hurt, needed the toilet or left things behind!

Nurture....

---

- For always helping me in class and being a great friend. Thank you.

Success....

---

- For being a kind and considerate member of our class and trying really hard in all areas of learning.

Dream....

---

- Enthusiasm for learning and super progress being made.

Achieve....

- Trying super hard at lunchtime to eat a different range of foods and being a super role model for his friends. You are a super star!

Nurture....

---

- For hosting a wonderful Mother's Day assembly for all of the EYFS mummies.
Thank you!

Dream....

- They were in Jack and the Beanstalk panto. They were amazing at dancing and speaking.
- For being a fab play leader at lunchtimes. The games are fun, well equipped and he encourages the younger ones to join in. They really enjoy your sessions, thank you!

Inclusive....

---

- During an evening at Kids Club, he made sure a nursery child was included in the football game. He cheered them on, took them under his wing and helped him score a goal!
- He is always trying something new every day. Plus, he is the best friend anyone could want.

Respect....

- For respecting everyone and helping people when they are upset.
- Being nice to us. If we are bored, she entertains us and makes lessons fun and simple. And for special things and fun things like chopping and peeling or watching movies.
- For being a lovely teacher. She is a super star.
- Because she helps everybody with maths.

Nurture....

---

- Everytime we see him we are so excited. He is so nice to everyone if they are playing cricket, football, handball or whatever! He is always positive and we hope to see him every week.

Love....

---

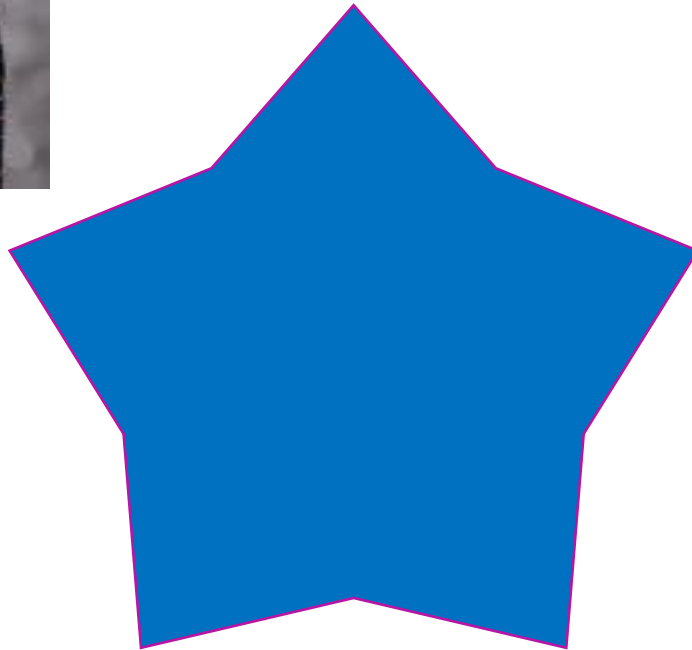

- When all of the Red Noses had sold out, there was one Reception child who couldn't get one – he gave his red nose to him, without hesitation. So kind!

Nurture....

---

- For helping me when things are tricky.

Success....

---

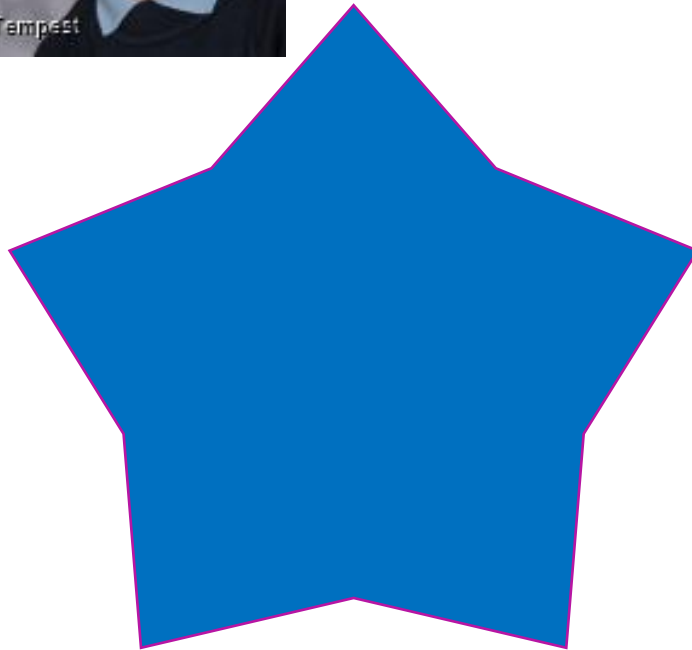

- His eagerness to learn is admirable! He always has his hand up to answer questions and acts on advice to improve his work. Keep it up!

Nurture....

- For being so encouraging and nurturing with a Year 1 child at lunchtime – nearly every day! Your mature and caring attitude is appreciated.

Respect....

---

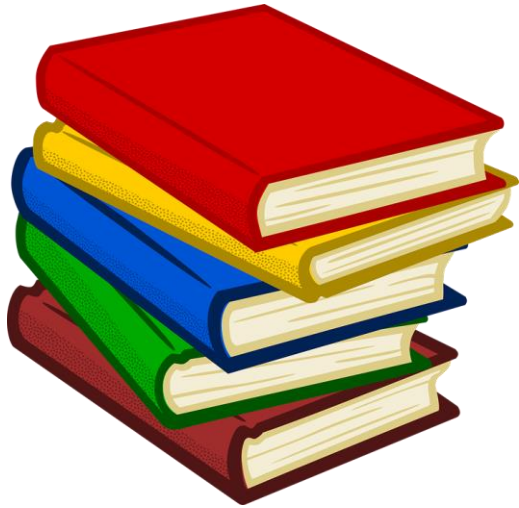

- Because every morning when we walk in, she always says, "Good morning, how are you". That makes our day, thank you.

Nurture....

---

- A lovely nurturing attitude towards our Year 5 & 6 children – Genuine interest and engaging conversation. Thank you.
