Core Values

Autumn 2 2024

Koinonia...

- For going above and beyond helping a new member of the class. You have shown empathy and care which is appreciated and noticed.
- You have helped him settle in and always made him feel included and welcome. Thank you.
- Nominated by: Miss Womersley & Mrs Young

Nurture....

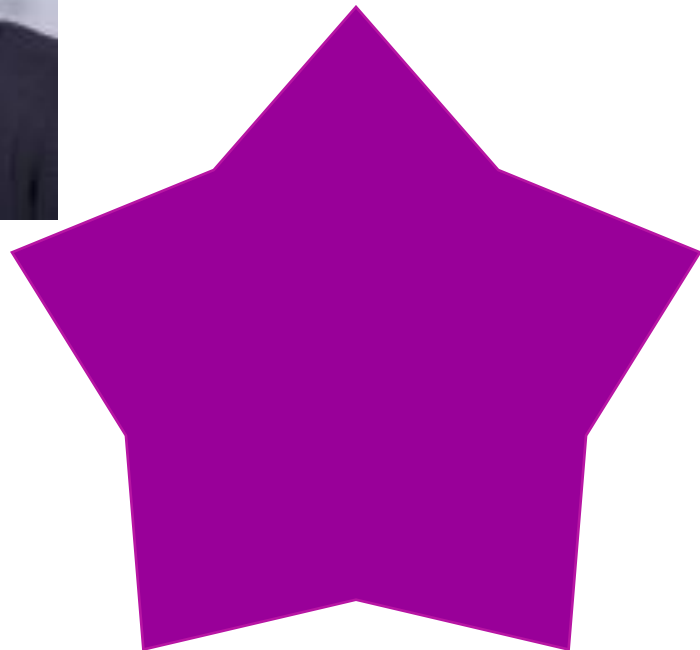

- For always coming in everyday with a big smile. She always puts everyone before herself. You are such a great friend. Thank you!

- Nominated by: Abigail

Love....

- Being a great role model and always supporting her peers during her swimming lessons. Thank you for being such a superstar.
- Nominated by: Miss Reynolds

Koinonia...

Mrs Ayrton

- She has fit in perfectly with our team and has brought an abundance of new ideas, experience and positivity.
- Nominated by: The EYFS staff

Dream....

• She is a ray of sunshine who puts her all into everything she does! She puts an instant smile on everybody's face just by being her.

Nominated by: All the EYFS Staff

Achieve....

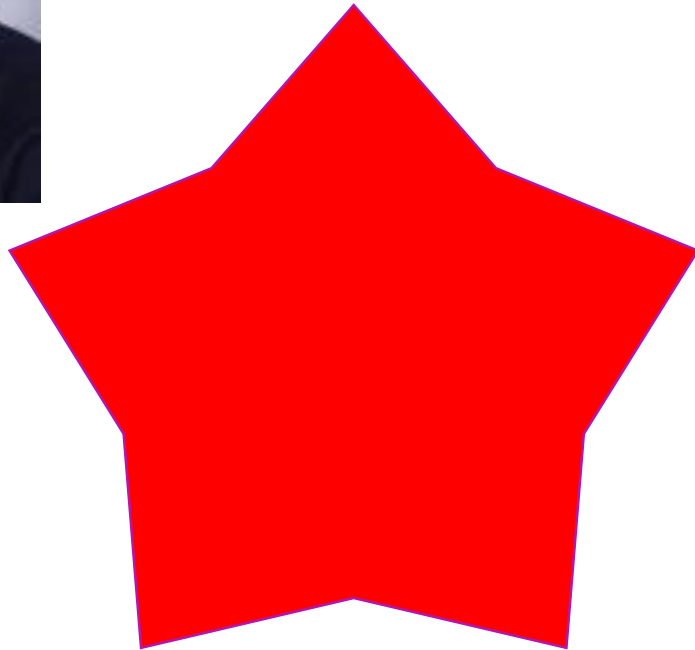

- For caring about other people and trying so hard when he has got ADHD.
- For being so brave and sharing your story with the whole school.

Nominated by: Lucy & Sophie & Mrs Young

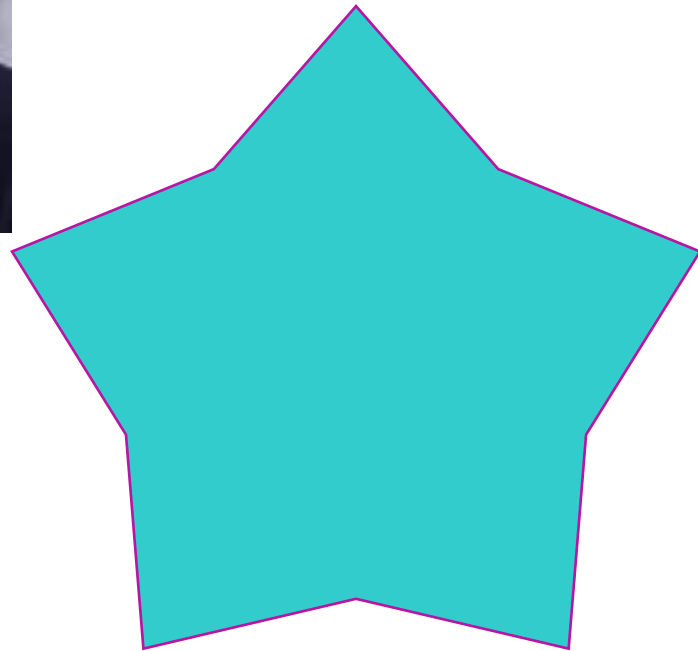

Koinonia...

- She is always there for her classmates, even if they are not necessarily her friend. She makes sure everyone is included and sits with them if they are hurt/not feeling well. She always does what the teacher says as soon as she has said it and is a really good role model, as she always does what's right. She is all round good and really deserves this!
- For consistently putting 100% into everything she does, challenging herself and striving to achieve her best in all areas. Keep up the brilliant attitude.
- Nominated by: Eliza & Miss Womersley

Respect....

- For fixing the laptop in Reception. It wasn't connecting to the IWB, but it is now! THANK YOU for coming to our rescue.
- Nominated by: Mrs Ayrton & All of EYFS

Nurture....

- For always helping

- Nominated by: Felix

Koinonia...

- Fantastic sportsmanship was shown at the Adam Heslop Cup. I was about to bring him on the pitch in the semi-final and he said I didn't have to bring him on, he just wanted the team to win. He did go on and played brilliantly. What an amazing team player!
- Nominated by: Mrs Stott

Respect....

- For putting others before herself and helping them to succeed when making waistcoats. Over two lessons, she supported, helped and taught her peers – thank you and well done!

- Nominated by:
Mrs Bromley & Mrs Sockett

Inclusive...

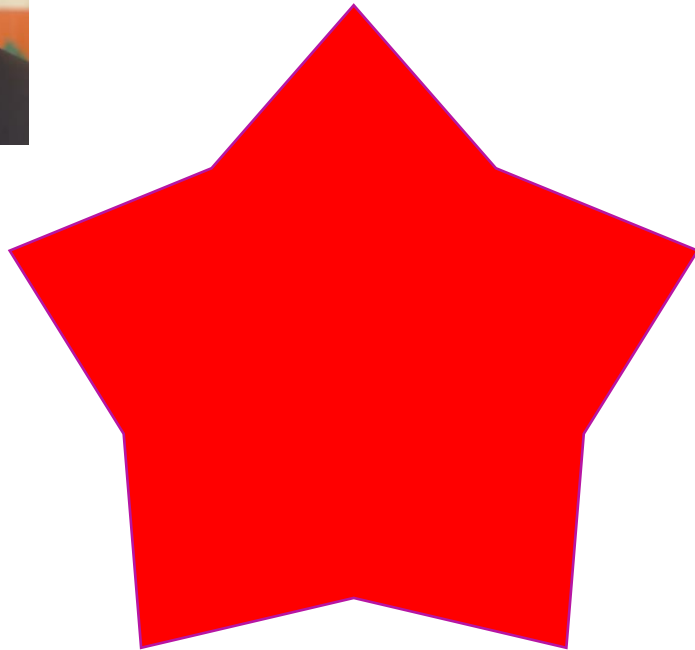

- For always letting us play. He always helps us when we are sad. He is a great friend and a generous person.
- Whenever I am sad, alone or worried, he comes over and talks about fish! He always cheers me up and shows all our values. He invites me to sit with him at lunch too.
- Nominated by: Jack & Teddy & Florence

Success....

- For succeeding in everything he does and being a great sports coach!
- Nominated by: Jack

Nurture....

- For always being the first to offer a helping hand and continuously doing the right thing without being asked.
- Nominated by: All the EYFS staff

Koinonia...

- She has been an absolutely fantastic member of the team. She has demonstrated positive leadership skills through being inclusive and nurturing to her peers. She has been a delight to work with and has been an absolute star in each of our sessions.
- Nominated by: Sarish Ditta

Nurture....

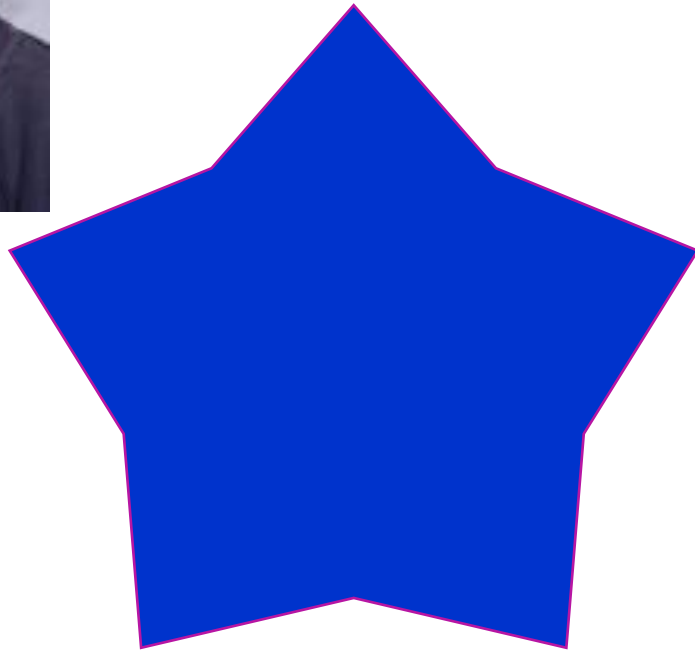

- A year 2 pupil was really nervous about performing in the Christmas Nativity. In kids club, he reassured this person and told them a story about how he has struggled with nerves in the past. This really helped. Well done!

- Nominated by: Mrs Stott

Aspire....

- In winter art morning he really wanted to do all the activities, and he managed to do multiple snowflakes.

- Nominated by : Oscar

Koinonia...

- I would like to nominate the children who came to the Toy Service. They all showed a real sense of community and care for those less fortunate than themselves. They shared not only toys, but their time building relationships with all members of our village community. Well done!

• Nominated by: Mrs Goldthorpe

Inclusive....

- He includes me in his games.
- Always helping me in football.
- For achieving his work in maths. Keep doing it!
